

True/False

Indicate whether the sentence or statement is true or false. If the sentence or statement is false, change the underlined phrase to make it true.

- _____ 1. The physical objects that people create and use form a group's nonmaterial culture.
- _____ 2. Society consists of people, and culture consists of the material and nonmaterial products that people create.
- _____ 3. Folkways are norms that describe socially acceptable behavior but do not have great moral significance attached to them.
- _____ 4. Mores are norms that do not have great moral significance attached to them.
- _____ 5. Values are the organization of written or spoken symbols into a standardized system.
- _____ 6. Basic components of a culture vary from society to society.
- _____ 7. Culture consists of all the shared products of human groups.
- _____ 8. All groups create norms to enforce their cultural values.
- _____ 9. It is through the use of technology that we create our culture and communicate it to group members and future generations.
- _____ 10. Laws are the shared rules of conduct that tell people how to act in specific situations.

Short Answer

Answer the following questions on a separate sheet of paper.

1. What is the difference between material culture and nonmaterial culture?
2. What are the basic components that all cultures have?
3. How is society different from culture?
4. How is the use of symbols related to culture?
5. What is technology and why is it one of the basic components of all cultures?